

Christian Ministry 1
Module 3: Predictive Prophecy
Exam Review Guide

Week 1

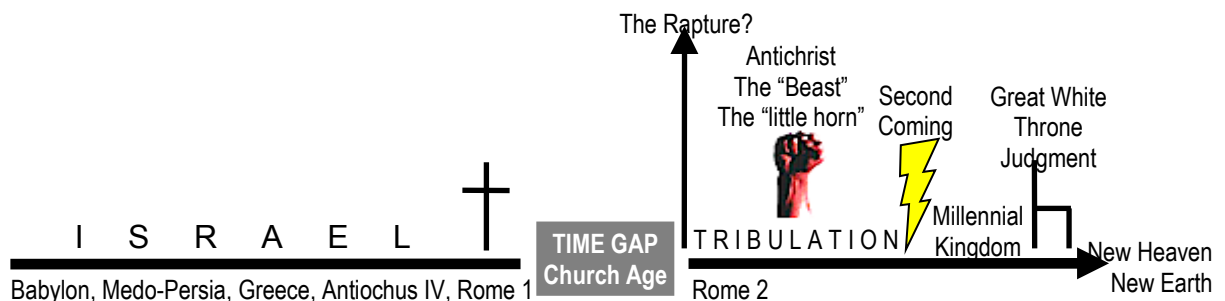

- Know these definitions: eschatology, millennial kingdom, covenantalism, dispensationalism, amillennialism, post-millennialism, and pre-millennialism.
- Be able to support this statement: Old Testament prophecies about the Messianic Kingdom should be interpreted literally instead of figuratively.
- Know what Covenantalists and Dispensationalists believe about Israel's future in God's plan.
- Know the approach Covenantalists and Dispensationalists take to interpreting unfulfilled Old Testament prophecy.

Week 2

- Know the definition of double-reference prophecy.
- Know the differences between and definitions of type, gap, and type-gap prophecies.
- Be able to identify the kingdoms described in Daniel's visions (Daniel 2, 7, & 8) and the order in which they appear.
- Know the differences between and identities of the "little horn" in Daniel 7 and the "small horn" in Daniel 8.
- Be able to defend the 530 B.C. date for the authorship of Daniel.
- Carefully review what your notes say about the fourth kingdom in Daniel's visions.

Week 3

- Be able to explain the difference between the kingdom that Jesus came to announce and the kingdom that the Jews expected.
- Know the two key signs that the end of the age is at hand.
- Reflect on what it means to be ready when Jesus returns.
- Be prepared to write a short description of the Antichrist.
- Be able to explain from Revelation 4 & 5 why God is worthy to rule.
- Be able to explain who appears at the Bema Seat and Great White Throne Judgments and what happens to them.
- The Bible urges Christians to seek eternal rewards ("lay up treasure for yourselves in heaven" – Matt. 6:20). Know different ways Christians can accumulate eternal rewards.
- Know these events, what they mean, and the order in which they occur: Church Age, The Tribulation, Second Coming, Millennial Kingdom, Great White Throne Judgment.
- Be familiar with the details of the end-times timeline:
