Week 8: Eschatology 2- Double Reference & Daniel's Visions

Introduction

Double Reference in Biblical Prophecy

Definition:

(J. Dwight Pentecost) "Two events, widely separated as to the time of their fulfillment, may be brought together into the scope of one prophecy. This was done because the prophet had a message for his own day as well as for a future time . . . It was the purpose of God to give the near and far view so that the fulfillment of the one should be the assurance of the fulfillment of the other." (J. Dwight Pentecost, Things To Come [Grand Rapids: Zondervan Publishing House, 1964], pp. 46,47).

Type

Definition: The Old Testament prophet describes an event, person, or institution ("type") and later Scripture reveals the prophetic significance of this event, person, or institution ("anti-type").

This subsequent event usually pertains to Christ or the events surrounding one of his comings.

Examples:

(Num. 21:8,9) The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live." (9) So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

Fulfillment:

(Jn. 3:14,15) Just as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, so the Son of Man must be lifted up, (15) that everyone who believes in him may have eternal life.

Additional Examples:

Old Testament atonement rituals (see Heb. 8-10)

Gen. 6: Noah's rescue from the flood through the Ark foreshadowed believers' rescue from God's judgment through "baptism" into Christ (1 Pet. 3).

Gap

Definition: The prophet predicts two dissimilar events, widely separated by time, as though they were one event.

The two events separated by the time gap usually relate to the two comings of the Messiah, of which the Old Testament prophets were unaware [1 Pet. 1:10-12].

Examples:

(Isa. 61:1-9) The Spirit of the Sovereign LORD is on me, because the LORD has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, (2) to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor and the day of vengeance of our God, to comfort all who mourn, (3) and provide for those who grieve in Zion-- to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes, the oil of gladness instead of mourning, and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair. They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the LORD for the display of his splendor. (4) They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated; they will renew the ruined cities that have been devastated for generations. (5) Aliens will shepherd your flocks; foreigners will work your fields and vineyards. (6) And you will be called priests of the LORD, you will be named ministers of our God. You will feed on the wealth of nations, and in their riches you will boast. (7) Instead of their shame my people will receive a double portion, and instead of disgrace they will rejoice in their inheritance; and so they will inherit a double portion in their land, and everlasting joy will be theirs. (8) "For I, the LORD, love justice; I hate robbery and iniquity. In my faithfulness I will reward them and make an everlasting covenant with them. (9) Their descendants will be known among the nations and their offspring among the peoples. All who see them will acknowledge that they are a people the LORD has blessed."

Fulfillment:

(Lk. 4:17-21 17) The scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling it, he found the place where it is written: (18) "The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to release the oppressed, (19) to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor." (20) Then he rolled up the scroll, gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him, (21) and he began by saying to them, "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

Additional example: Isa. 11:1-5 (John 5:30)

Type-Gap

Definition: The prophet predicts two similar events or people widely separated in time. The first event foreshadows the later event (in most cases the later event concerns the end of the age). In this case, type and antitype (the future corresponding event) are both being described by the original author.

Example:

(Isaiah 13:1-16) The oracle concerning Babylon which Isaiah the son of Amoz saw. 2 Lift up a standard on the bare hill, Raise your voice to them, Wave the hand that they may enter the doors of the nobles. 3 I have commanded My consecrated ones, I have even called My mighty warriors, My proudly exulting ones, To execute My anger. 4 A sound of tumult on the mountains, Like that of many people! A sound of the uproar of kingdoms, Of nations gathered together! The LORD of hosts is mustering the army for battle. 5 They are coming from a far country From the farthest horizons, The LORD and His instruments of indignation, To destroy the whole land. 6 Wail, for the day of the LORD is near! It will come as destruction from the Almighty. 7 Therefore all hands will fall limp, And every man's heart will melt. 8 And they will be terrified, Pains and anguish will take hold of them; They will writhe like a woman in labor, They will look at one another in astonishment, Their faces aflame. 9 Behold, the day of the LORD is coming, Cruel, with fury and burning anger, To make the land a desolation; And He will exterminate its sinners from it. 10 For the stars of heaven and their constellations Will not flash forth their light; The sun will be dark when it rises, And the moon will not shed its light. 11 Thus I will punish the world for its evil, And the wicked for their iniquity; I will also put an end to the arrogance of the proud, And abase the haughtiness of the ruthless. 12 I will make mortal man scarcer than pure gold, And mankind than the gold of Ophir. 13 Therefore I shall make the heavens tremble, And the earth will be shaken from its place At the fury of the LORD of hosts In the day of His burning anger.

Additional Examples: Compare Luke 21:20-24 & Matt. 24:15-22, Joel 1-3 (invasion of locusts foreshadows invasion of army)

Unforeseen Partial

Definition: The prophet predicts aspects of God's kingdom at the end of the age. New Testament authors subsequently reveal that this prediction has been granted in a partial way to the church. (The prophets predictions will still be fulfilled at the end of the age.)

Example:

(Jer. 31:31-34) "The time is coming," declares the LORD, "when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah. (32) It will not be like the covenant I made with their forefathers when I took them by the hand to lead them out of Egypt, because they broke my covenant, though I was a husband to them, " declares the LORD. (33) "This is the covenant I will make with the house of Israel after that time," declares the LORD. "I will put my law in their minds and write it on their hearts. I will be their God, and they will be my people. (34) No longer will a man teach his neighbor, or a man his brother, saying, 'Know the LORD,' because they will all know me, from the least of them to the greatest," declares the LORD. "For I will forgive their wickedness and will remember their sins no more."

Fulfillment:

(Heb. 10: 15-18) The Holy Spirit also testifies to us about this. First he says: (16) "This is the covenant I will make with them after that time, says the Lord. I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds." (17) Then he adds: "Their sins and lawless acts I will remember no more." (18) And where these have been forgiven, there is no longer any sacrifice for sin.

Additional Examples: Joel 2:28-32 (see Acts 2:16-21); Isa. 49:6 (Acts 13:47)

- (1 Maccabees 2:59-61, dated 140-100 BC) "Hananiah, Azariah, and Mishael had faith, and they were saved from the flames. Daniel was a man of integrity, and he was rescued from the lion's jaws. So bear in mind how in the history of the generations no one who trusts in Heaven ever lacks strength."
- (Josephus: Antiquities, Book XI, chapter 8, section 5) ". . . and he (Alexander) came into the city; and when he went up into the temple, he offered sacrifice to God, according to the high priest's direction, and magnificently treated both the high priest and the priests. And when the book of Daniel was shewed him, wherein Daniel declared that one of the Greeks should destroy the empire of the Persians, he supposed that himself was the person intended . . . The next day he called them to him, and bade them ask what favors they pleased of him . . . (and) he granted all they desired."
- Ezekiel (writtearound 575 BC) mentions Daniel (see Ez. 14:14-20; 28:3).

Daniel 11, 12: Warring Kingdoms

11:1,2 refer to four more kings of Persia--Cambyses, Pseudo-Smerdis, Darius I Hystapses, and Xerxes I.

11:3,4 refer to Alexander the Great and his four generals.

11:5-20 describes the fate of two of the Greek kingdoms with reference to Israel. The "king of the South" (vs. 5,8) refers to the Ptolemaic empire, while the "king of the North" (vs. 6,11,13,15) refers to the Seleucid empire. It deals with the battles between them during the 150 years following Alexander's death. This is covered in great detail (which is why the liberals late-date it) because it was of great concern for the Jews who went through it.

Example: Vs. 17 refers to when the Seleucid king Antiochus the Great gave his daughter (Cleopatra) to marry the seven year old Ptolemy V in 192 BC. This was a diplomatic marriage which failed because Cleopatra consistently sided with her husband against her father.

11:21-35 describes the rise and activities of Antiochus IV.

Reasons why there is a Type-Gap between 11:35 and 11:36

1. Dan. 11:35 implies a gap ("... until the end time . . .") as did Dan. 9:26
2. Dan. 11:1-35 is clearly fulfilled, while Dan. 11:36-12:1 is clearly unfulfilled. Dan. 12:1,2 ("at that time") is the Great Tribulation described in Matt. 24:15ff. and Zech. 12-14.
3. The two people are described differently. The "king" in Dan. 11:36 is a different name from the "despicable person" of Dan. 11:21. Dan. 11:36,37 do not fit Antiochus IV because he did not reject all gods and assume deity. The king in Dan. 11:40 attacks the "king of the North"--while Antiochus IV is the "king of the North" (11:15,21).
4. Jesus says that the abomination of desolation is unfulfilled (Matt. 24:15).

11:36-12:1 describes the activity of the Anti-Christ during the last days.

- He claims deity (11:36,37).
- He is a warlike ruler (11:38).
- He has total economic control (11:39).
- He goes to war with the "king of the North" and the "king of the South" (11:40).
- He invades the Mideast after passing through countries, ignoring Edom, Moab, and Ammon (11:40,41).
- He carries the campaign into Egypt (11:42).
- Rumors from the northeast cause him to reverse direction and go to Israel (11:44,45).
- He is destroyed at Armageddon (11:45; 12:1).

12:1-4 describes the end of the tribulation, the resurrection of the tribulational martyrs (see also Rev. 20:4), and the millennial kingdom.

The 1260 days in 12:7 evidently covers from the Anti-Christ's abomination of desolation (see Matt. 24:15) to the second coming (3.5 years--see Dan. 9:27). 12:11 includes 30 more days, possibly for the judgment of Israel (see Ezek. 20:34-38). 12:12 includes 45 more days, possibly for the judgment of the nations (see Matt. 25:31-46). Those who are still alive after these judgments are "blessed" because they go into and inhabit (as mortals) the millennial kingdom.
